

The airwaves belong to the public and are only to be used by company's like Sinclair Broadcasting. To use the publicly owned airways for partisan political purposes is an insult to the American people. It is unfortunate the public is not more outraged at corporate domination of the public airways. The more stations owned by just a few companies the worse it is for our democracy. Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them.